Gentleman,

I apologize for bothering you with this request, but it does pose a rather interesting problem. Will you please review the attached e-mail and provide me with your thoughts so that I might be able to get back to Mr. Kowalski with an answer.

Thank you,
Amanda

Hi Amanda,

I hope you are weathering the legislative session well...it's been quite an intense couple of months! Thanks for all you're doing for the State and our District. I know that you are very busy, and I hesitate to ask for your intervention. I am reaching out to you as Chair of the House Environment committee and I'm trusting that this will be an easy matter to resolve.

On March 18, 2011, Greater Phoenix SCORE (a non-profit resource partner of the US Small Business Administration) and the City of Phoenix co-hosted a major event in support of the small business community. The YOB Fair attracted almost 3,000 business owners at the Shriner Auditorium for a day of education, networking, and inspiration by our keynote speakers, Jerry Colangelo and Pat McMahon. Since the parking lot at the auditorium was insufficient for a crowd this size, we secured agreement to use the adjacent property which is a vacant unpaved lot owned by the Arizona State Land Department and leased by Clarius Partners, LLC. SCORE supplied a certificate of liability insurance, and provided police and parking service from the Maricopa County Sheriff's office.

SCORE has since received Complaint #242196 alleging violations of Maricopa County Air Pollution Control Regulations. The notice states, “All violations must be corrected immediately...”; however, since SCORE had use of the land for only that one day, there is nothing to correct now. It is SCORE’s understanding that they are instead subject to a fine and that is why I am asking for your assistance in getting this alleged violation dismissed. I had considered reaching out to Maria Baier who you know is the State Land Commissioner but I wanted to check with you first.

Please advise at your earliest convenience as SCORE has only 10 days to respond.

Thanks in advance,

John
